FOOD, FAITH AND FARMING NETWORK

Strengthening Connections in Rural Southwest Wisconsin

Application for Seed Money

Food, Faith and Farming Network is seeking applications for seed money for new initiatives that support our mission and address the issues raised in our Listening/Networking Sessions held in early 2018. While we highly recommend applying for projects that address the priorities for action stated in our report, other worthy initiatives will be considered.

The priorities listed in the report are:
- Establishing farmer's markets in small, rural communities
- Helping local farmers gain access to local food markets
- Helping to create local food systems in rural communities
- Helping to transition farmers/farms to the next generation
- Fostering communication between agricultural sectors

Expectations of Project	Expectations of the Network
Aligns with mission of the Network	Provides seed money to advance projects
Addresses one of our prioritized areas	Serves as a sounding board for projects
Is supported by a network of interested parties	Provides input on networking possibilities
Has clearly defined actions and outcomes	Publicizes projects on our website
Informs the Network of project progress	Provides help in publicizing projects

Size of available seed money project funding: $1200 --$1500

Deadline: November 1

Awardees notified: December 15
