

FOOD, FAITH AND FARMING NETWORK

Strengthening Connections in Rural Southwest Wisconsin

Application for Seed Money

Food, Faith and Farming Network is soliciting applications for seed money for new initiatives that support our mission and address the issues raised in our Listening/Networking Sessions held in early 2018. While we highly recommend applying for projects that address the priorities for action stated in our report, other worthy initiatives will be considered.

The priorities listed in the report are:

- Establishing farmer's markets in small, rural communities
- Helping local farmers gain access to local food markets
- Helping to create local food systems in rural communities
- Helping to transition farmers/farms to the next generation
- Fostering communication between agricultural sectors

Expectations of Project

Aligns with mission of the Network
Addresses one of our prioritized areas
Is supported by a network of interested parties
Has clearly defined actions and outcomes
Informs the Network of project progress

Expectations of the Network

Provides seed money to advance projects
Serves as a sounding board for projects
Provides input on networking possibilities
Publicizes projects on our website
Provides help in publicizing projects

Size of available grants: $1200 --$1500

Deadline: April 1, 2019
